To the Shareholders
Berry & Kington, PSC
and the Peer Review Committee of the Kentucky Society of CPAs

We have reviewed the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice of Berry & Kington, PSC (the firm) in effect for the year ended March 31, 2009. Our review was conducted in accordance with Standards for Performing and Reporting on Peer Reviews established by the Peer Review Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The firm is responsible for designing a system of quality control and complying with it to provide the firm reasonable assurance of performing and reporting in conformity with applicable professional standards in all material respects. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the design of the system of quality control and the firm's compliance therewith based on our review. The nature, objectives, scope, limitations of, and the procedures performed in a Systems Review are described in the standards at www.aicpa.org/prsummary.

As required by the standards, the engagements selected for review included an audit performed under Government Auditing Standards.

In our opinion, the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice of Berry & Kington, PSC in effect for the year ended March 31, 2009, has been suitably designed and complied with to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of performing and reporting in conformity with applicable professional standards in all material respects. Firms can receive a rating of pass, pass with deficiencies or fail. Berry & Kington, PSC has received a peer review rating of pass.
